

Learning from experiences: the person centred care symposium 2025

Wednesday 5th February 2025
IET Birmingham: Austin Court

9.00 am - 10.00 am

Welcome and refreshments

10.00 am - 11.05 am

Morning plenary session:
Chair's introduction - Angela Coulter

Keynote presentations:

Transforming care through person centredness – the power of patient and public insight. Led by Samira Ben Omar.

Why does person centred care matter in 2025? Led by Alf Collins.

Group Q&A

11.05 am - 11.30 am

Break

11.30 am - 12.45 pm

Breakout stream one:

Using experience insight for quality improvement
Led by Chris Graham and Mirek Skrypak.

Breakout stream two:

Learning from narrative accounts of care
Led by James Munro and Anna Tee.

12.45 pm - 1.40 pm

Lunch

1.40 pm - 2.40 pm

Schwartz Round: hosted by Laura Golding and Eryn London from the Point of Care Foundation

The links between staff and patients' experiences, and how listening to these can help make care feel more human

A conversation with panelists, participants and reflections

2.40 pm - 3.05 pm

Break

3.05 pm - 4.00 pm

Breakout stream one:

Working in partnership with patients and the public
Led by Victoria Thomas (Chair), Kim Rezel, and Emma Sparrow.

Breakout stream two:

Learning from workforce experience
Led by Kate Jarman and Ben Travis.

4.00 pm - 4.45 pm

Closing plenary session

People Power: Learning from Grenfell
Led by Dan Wellings, The King's Fund.

4.45 pm

Close